

League or No League Theme of Most Slogans Since Gov. Cox's Speech

Contest for The Evening World's Awards
Marked by Lively Declarations For or Against the Mooted Covenant.

The League of Nations is the dominant theme of the thousands of slogan writers who have entered the contest for The Evening World's awards since Gov. Cox's speech of acceptance, the Cox and Harding battle cries ringing louder than ever with their respective pros and cons.

COX SLOGANS.

"That Peace the World May Sway, Give the League of Nations Way."
—Joshua Jones, Chester, N. Y.
"Down With Fanaticism and Hypocrisy: Vote for Cox, Progressive and Representative Government."
—E. J. Morgan, No. 68 Hamilton Terrace.

"Cox—Babe Ruth of Politics—Will Bat America to Peace, Prosperity and Progressiveness."
—Mae E. Barnes, No. 46 West 14th Street.
"Cox With an O and an X, You Know—Our Next President."
—Joseph J. Casey, No. 13 East 130th Street.

"Honor Demands Ratification of the League of Nations—Assert Your Self-Respect."
—Fannie Webster, No. 302 Foxhall Avenue, Kingston, N. Y.
"A Voice With a Smile Wins; So Does a Vote for Cox."
—J. McGowan, No. 45 West 50th Street.

"Cox Means—Consider: O Means—One; X Means—Excellent—Democrat for President."
—George R. Curran, No. 2 Hall Street, Astoria, L. I.
"We Fought, Bled and Endured for Democracy; Secure It—Vote for Cox."
—Reuben Kaplan, No. 1715 Washington Avenue, Bronx.

"The League of Nations Must Stand; Cox Will Carry Out Wilson's Plan."
—P. J. Martin, No. 10752 Church Street, Richmond Hill South.
"If Heroes Brave You Would Remember, Vote for Cox This Coming November."
—Carroll, No. 212 East 70th Street.

"When You're at the Ballot Box Make Your Vote Strong for Cox."
—Mrs. George Woodcock, No. 72 Fourth Place, Brooklyn.
"A World of Difference Between America First and America Isolated—Elect Cox."
—M. A. Scherle, No. 42 West 39th Street.

"Countrymen! This World's in a Plight; Cox Elected Would Make It Right."
—Mrs. M. Hamilton, No. 210 West 147th Street.
"Cox Does Things; Cox Wins; and You Can't Buy or Sell Cox."
—Mrs. W. Daly, No. 599 West 59th Street.

"Do not DELAY the Next War—Make It IMPOSSIBLE! Vote for Cox."
—Joseph Hornerman, No. 25 Bristol Street, Brooklyn.
"Republican Congress Gave Us Some Shocks; Our Answer Will Be—President Cox."
—Martin J. Cuff, No. 1715 Linden Street, Brooklyn.

EDISON PUBLICLY COBBLES HIS SHOE

Celebrants of Anniversary Gaze on Inventor's Sock While Son Reads Speech.

While Thomas A. Edison calmly pulled off his shoe, drew a big jack knife from the old-fashioned slanting pocket of his old-fashioned trousers and cut a hanging strip of leather from the sole, 125 distributors of Edison products yesterday looked on and heard Charles Edison read an address, prepared by his father, in which it was predicted that the increased use of office machinery would soon boost the pay of "white collar men." The address was made at the Edison plant in West Orange, N. J., in reply to a speech by George M. Austin of Philadelphia, who presented Mr. Edison with a silk bag commemorating the forty-third anniversary of his invention of the dictating machine.

The inventor joined in the laugh which followed his impromptu cobbling.

MARRIED 25 YEARS, KILLS HER HUSBAND

Fires Five Bullets Into Auto Salesman "Because She Loved Him."

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 13.—Mrs. John H. Brinkman fired five bullets into the body of her husband, to whom she had been married for twenty-four years. Brinkman, an auto salesman, was leaving the couple's rooms at a downtown hotel when Mrs. Brinkman, without warning, opened fire on him. He died instantly. Mrs. Brinkman said she had intended to commit suicide, but in her excitement had fired all the bullets at her husband.

"I killed him because I loved him," she sobbed.

Her husband came recently to Wisconsin, leaving his wife in Newark, N. J. She followed him against his wishes.

Have You a 12-Word Campaign Slogan For Harding or Cox?

THE Harding managers are already proposing to blazon such a slogan from every dead wall in the cities and towns in the country from coast to coast. The Cox managers will follow suit. The Evening World has thousands of readers who can write clever slogans. We invite them all to try their hand. The Evening World will pay $110 in prizes for the best efforts, divided as follows:
First prize Harding slogan, $25.
Three other prizes, $10 each.
First prize Cox slogan, $25.
Three other prizes, $10 each.
Remember this is neither a guessing contest nor a lottery. Skill alone will count in the selection of winners. The slogan must contain exactly 12 words. Send in your slogan to Slogan Editor, Evening World. The contest will close Thursday, Aug. 19, and the winners will be announced Monday, Aug. 23.

DROWNED SWIMMER IS NOT YET FOUND

Search Resumed for Body of Thomas Brennan, Who Lost
Life at Long Beach.

A watch on the waters for the body of Thomas Brennan of No. 317 Seventy-fourth Street, Brooklyn, was resumed at Long Beach, L. I., to-day after being discontinued at dusk last night. Brennan came to Long Beach yesterday with Miss May Lyman, sixteen years old, with whose parents he had lived for many years.

Life Guard Al Reis of the Riviera Baths heard a scream from Miss Lyman when a big roller swept into the beach yesterday afternoon and went out and brought her in, only partly conscious. When he had resuscitated her she asked for "brother" and gave the guard the first intimation that anybody else had been knocked over by the unusual wave. All the life guards along the beach were summoned to join in the search.

Miss Lyman became hysterical when she learned Brennan was missing, saying she had persuaded him to go to the beach yesterday against his will.

CRANK IS SEIZED NEAR ROOSEVELT

Jand Insisted on Seeing Candidate and Is Held for Observation.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 13.—Guests at a dinner to Franklin D. Roosevelt here last night had visions of another Roosevelt tragedy when a man entered the dining room and cried that he must see Roosevelt at once, as he had an important message to deliver. Detectives pounced upon him.

Taken to Police Headquarters, the prisoner said that his name was Ralph Jand, aged twenty-seven, and that he had followed Roosevelt here from New York. He was placed under observation.

ROOSEVELT IN MINNEAPOLIS

Speaks There To-Day and To-Night in St. Paul.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 13.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, had a busy day in the twin cities. He arrived here this morning from Milwaukee, where he spoke last night.

In addition to a noon address in Minneapolis and a night address in St. Paul, several informal receptions and a luncheon and dinner were on his programme. He leaves St. Paul tonight for Sioux Falls, S. D.
